UNDER THE SEA: THE GREAT BARRIER REEF - 深海堡藏	Overseas	10-15	Informative  Educational/ Informative	her feet hosting this brand-new series about the nation's much-loved moggies. Over 13 million people across the UK have adopted a cat into their family. But the curiosity, agility, and nose for mischief that makes us love them, also gets our troublesome tabbies into some sticky situations, and in need of our help. Across 7 episodes we'll follow the RSPCA inspectors, vets and volunteers who work tirelessly to save the nation's cats from harm. From four storey falls, to cats stuck up chimneys, the RSPCA have their work cut out rescuing Britain's moggies from danger and we'll be following them every step of the way. Jo will be on the front line, rolling her sleeves up for surgery duties at one of the countries busiest animal hospitals. She'll meet owners, vets, RSPCA officers and the members of the public that have taken rescue cats into their hearts and their homes. And she'll bring you the science behind what makes your beloved kitty one of the most impressive creatures on the planet. On the other side of the world under the crystal-clear blue waters of the Pacific Ocean lies one of the most enchanted places on the planet. Over ten thousand miles away on the North-Eastern coast of Australia lies the Great Barrier Reef. One of the natural wonders of our world. It provides shelter to some hidden wildlife sanctuaries that contain some truly magical marine creatures. Invited on a spellbinding reef adventure by Emmy award-winning underwater cinematographer and marine Biologist Richard Fitzpatrick, conservationist and naturalist Iolo Williams will dive deep beneath the tranquil surface of the coral sea to discover what state this natural wonder is in. Together they'll be travelling from the extreme swells of the northern part of the reef right down to the cooler pristine corals of the south.
